Important Information

Purchasing this online ticket means that usually you don't have to queue at the ticket desk and you can start your tour straight away without waiting! The entrance is located directly below the great copper dome called the Michaelerkuppel.

We provide our visitors with audio guides and/or tour descriptions in 13 languages free of charge depending on availability.

Tickets purchased online cannot be exchanged or returned!

Vienna City Card holders must produce a valid Vienna City Card together with a ticket on admission.

Please note

Please ensure that you note the time of admission printed on your ticket, and that you appear at the gate in the main building at the right time. If you turn up late your ticket will no longer be valid.

Visitors are not allowed to bring in bulky objects or luggage of any kind - suitcases, bags, scooters, etc. Please note as well that there are no options available for left-luggage storage.

The use of tripods, selfie sticks or similar photographic or video equipment is prohibited at the museum, as is the use of flash and similar forms of lighting.
